Walter Jurgensen Obituary

One of the earliest members of the Greater Chicago Insulator Club, Walter Jurgensen of Chicago, recently passed away. Walter started collecting in the early 1990s and attended the club's formative meeting at the home of John and Carol McDougald in October 1992. He joined prior to the meeting and was club member #4

The first club membership directory listed his interests as different embossings, commemorative insulators, and glass Bell telephone paperweights. Bob Stahr, who bought his collection, confirmed this as he reported that Walter had a variety of railroad marked insulators (e.g., M.P. CPR, CNR), over 30 Bell telephone paperweights, and an extensive run of the NIA national show commemoratives, among various other kinds.

Walter's son, Alan, contacted the Crown Jewels after Walter's death and Howard Banks gave him the names of several area collectors who looked over the collection and made offers. Alan and Rick Soller also communicated about material that might be of interest for the NIA archives and Alan found and donated a few such items including a couple letters from collectors (Ken Willick, Jack Foote, Ken Pollard) and a business card from Tom & Alice Moulton.

Below is the published obituary for Walter:

Racine, Wisconsin Club Swap Meet Show Report

On Saturday, September 11, 2010, Randy Wesner hosted his 10th annual GCIC swap meet in Racine, Wisconsin. Once again, the auction exceeded previous records in sales. In addition, collectors from six states made it to Racine and a number of unusual items changed hands. To commemorate the growth of the swap meet, Randy created special commemoratives for each attendee.

Once again the auction set a record for the number of insulators sold and the amount raised for the club. A total of $1734 worth of insulators was sold in 109 lots to 17 bidders. $147 was made in commissions and $262 came from the donation of the proceeds from the sale of the Nelson's collection. Of this amount ($409), $150 went to Randy Wesner to pay for the tent needed because of the rain and $100 was used to reimburse Randy for food. This left $159 for the GCIC coffers.

The auction ran from 11 a.m. to noon, broke for lunch and restarted at about 1 p.m. Lois and Willard Nelson brought their porcelain collection and sold it in the auction and Rick Soller brought a large quantity of porcelain insulators too as well as some glass. Dave French brought some better insulators for the auction. Randy Wesner included some commemoratives made especially for the swap meet and 3 other collectors included items in the auction. Auction results are listed below.
